

The new bookstore will target adults and younger adolescents, offering a wide variety of book selections, light food and drink options at the cafe, and wireless Internet connection. Customers will choose this bookstore because of the atmosphere and accessibility to the Internet.